THE LATEST ANNOUNCEMENT RE APPROACHING CAMPAIGN FOR THE WESLEYAN COLLEGE

Campaign to Commence on Monday, February 17th and Conclude at 6 p. m. Saturday 22nd

250,000 DOLLARS NEEDED FOR NEW STRUCTURE

New Building will be Complete in Every Respect

When interviewed by a Daily representative yesterday the Rev. James Smyth, principal of the Wesleyan Theological College, made many interesting statements regarding the coming campaign which is to be undertaken in the near future. It has been felt for a long time now that the present quarters were not only too small, but in many respects unsuited for the needs of the institution. As a result, arrangements have been made for a canvas of Montreal with a view to raising $250,000 for a new building and the endowment of the College.

A committee has already been formed with Mr. C. C. Holland as campaign secretary for the purpose of obtaining the requisite funds. There will be a dinner given next Thursday night for the purpose of arranging the details of the campaign which is to commence on Monday, Feb. 17, and is to close on Saturday, the 22nd at 6 p.m.

The new building will be erected at the corner of Milton and University streets on the site of the present structure which will be demolished to make room for its successor. The new building will be complete in every way and will be fireproof throughout. There will be a reception room, a common room for the students with newspapers, magazines, etc., a gymnasium complete in every essential, including shower baths and a dormitory. The building will be designed to accommodate one hundred resident students.

The structure will be up-to-date, and will provide everything essential for the work of the institution. In the past the College has been handicapped by want of room, but in the new quarters the accommodation will be ample.

The appearance of the building when completed will be very handsome. The basement will be of Montreal limestone and the superstructure of grey pressed brick with Indiana limestone window and door trimmings. There will be five storeys and the building, when completed, will be quite an addition to the architectural features of the University and its affiliated colleges.

It is also understood that plans underway, whereby a building will be erected for the lectures given to the students of the combined theological colleges. All these colleges will in all probability experience a rapid growth owing to the advantages offered by the recent co-operative scheme.

GOOD OPPORTUNITY PROVIDED FOR UNDERGRADUATES TO SEE SWIMMING TEAM IN ACTION

McGill Inter-class Meet will be Held on Wednesday, February 12th at the Y. M. C. A. Tank

HODGSON TO TRY TO LOWER THE 220 RECORD

A Fast Polo Game with all Star Team will Also be a Feature

Definite arrangements have now been concluded regarding the Inter-class Swimming Meet. It is to be held on Wednesday, February 12th at it seems to me, that whenever McGills This event is being looked forward to with interest by many McGill men as it will afford them a chance to see the swimming team in action.

With this end in view, a relay race has been arranged between the senior team, who were so successful in the States, and a picked team. In order to make this race closer and more exciting the latter team will be given a handicap. Another feature will be a water polo game between the McGill senior team and an all-star team picked from the M.A.A.A. and other outside organizations.

The complete programme will be as follows:—1, fifty yard race; 2, hundred yard race; 3, two-hundred yard race; 4, fancy diving event; 5, long plunge event; 6, swimming on back; 7, water polo game; 8, relay race.

In addition to this a handicap race has been arranged in the two-hundred. Geo. Hodgson will try to break the record in this event and there is every chance that he will succeed as he is in splendid shape.

The whole programme is a most attractive one and should draw a large crowd. The Y.M.C.A. baths are easily accessible and are the finest in the city. There will be some 25 reserved seats at fifty cents a piece but the majority will sell for 25c.

A letter has been received from the Toronto Swimming Club with reference to the Intercollegiate swimming and polo meet. This will take place on Saturday, Feb. 15th, in the West End Y.M.C.A. tank, as there is no suitable tank at Varsity. It has not yet been definitely decided whether the meet will be held in the afternoon or evening, but the C.A.S.A. rules will govern the contests.

The polo team have already held three practices this week in preparation for the Toronto meet. All the men are in excellent shape and are going well.

John Kerry, whose unfortunate illness kept him out of the final game with the M.A.A.A., again is better now, and has returned to form. His presence will add considerable strength to the team.

MARITIME CLUB.

Every man from Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick is cordially invited to attend a Smoker and Social Evening of the Maritime Club, in the Union, on Saturday, 8th inst., at 8 o'clock. There will be free Smokes and Refreshments for the inner man, as well as a good programme of instrumental and other Music and Speeches from prominent men. ### Editorials

A number of Conservatives among the Undergraduates of McGill University have seen fit to organize a partisan political Club. The stated objects of this organization are in brief: to help the student body keep in constant touch with politics; to give scope for the development of political ideas; and to help the individual student to think out important political problems. According to this programme the organizers of the Club certainly show a striking interest in the welfare of their fellow students. Their aspirations are lofty in the extreme and their motives purely benevolent.

We have no doubt that the Liberals, inspired by the stand taken by the Conservatives, will also form a Club of precisely the same nature. We hope that their stated objects will take the same patriotic and laudable form as those of the Conservatives. We will then see a truly Utopian condition of affairs political at McGill University. Picture to yourselves, if you can, both political parties in the University striving to help the individual student, struggling to broaden the outlook of the undergraduate; helping him to think out important political problems and taking every precaution to avoid warping his judgment in any way. What a desirable situation.

Of course, this Club is affiliated with the Montreal Liberal-Conservative Club. This is necessary if the organization is to carry out its programme to the best advantage, particularly if the Club is to be "a recruiting ground for future politicians." It would sound much better if they had used the word statesmen, and be more in keeping with the rest of the programme.

Our readers will have realized by this time that we do not in any way approve of the new Club. We hope the Liberals will not take a step of a similar nature and that, if they do so, they will be a little franker than the Conservatives in regard to the stated objects of the organization.

From our point of view the Club is an unnecessary and undesirable addition to the already long list of undergraduate organizations. Now, that it has been established we sincerely hope that it will in a short time die of inanition and that the students will attain the development of political IDEALS from non partisan sources.

The Swimming Club's project of holding an Inter-class meet is an excellent one in many ways, but chiefly on account of the fact that it will give McGill students a chance to see the team in an actual contest. So far this year we have had no opportunity of doing so and, as the Intercollegiate championships are to be held in Toronto, we would have had none at all, if it had not been for the energy of the Club in arranging the meet.

The Club has only been organized for some five years now and its growth has been remarkable in every way. The polo team is one of the strongest in Canada, while the Swimming team is one of the best intercollegiate teams on the continent.

A very large number of undergraduates take advantage of the opportunities for aquatic sports offered by the Club, and a still larger number take an interest in its successful progress. We hope that, in the near future, the Club will have a home of its own and that, when the gymnasium does come, it will contain the largest and best equipped swimming tank in Canada.

DR. ROSWELL BATES WILL SPEAK MONDAY AT Y. M. SUPPER

Famous New York Speaker to Tell of the Slums

On Monday night, the Y.M.C.A. will hold another of their popular monthly suppers at which the Rev. Dr. Roswell Bates will speak. Dr. Bates is an eminent divine of New York City, who has spent a great deal of his life and work amongst the poor in the slums of that city, and it is assured that he will have something of interest to all to say.

It is questions on these matters that have caused such wide spread interest, and the Y.M.C.A. deserve to be congratulated on having secured such a fine speaker.

A small fee of 25 cents is to be charged, but this is negligible when we consider the treat, both mentally and physically, that is in store for those who intend going. The supper will be served sharp at 6 p.m. in the Hall.

KEEN INTEREST IN THE MANDOLIN CLUB

Present Organization Superior to any of its Predecessors

The Mandolin Club has been making great strides of development within the past few months. There was a large turn-out at the practice in Peate's studio on Wednesday night, and with the present augmentation in numbers and keen interest displayed the Club soon bids fare to rank second to none in Canada. In preparation for vaudeville night all members have been working most faithfully and it is needless to say that the turn the Club puts on will be one of the highest merit. This is not the only matter on the topic, however, for a trip to Macdonald College will be made in the near future, and there is talk of going to Sherbrooke and Quebec. The next practice will take place in Peate's studio, St. Catherine St., as usual, on a week from next Wednesday and it is hoped that all members who possibly can will turn out.

THE ETHICAL BASIS OF EDUCATION WAS SUBJECT OF PAPER

Philosophical Society Hear
Goob Paper

A very scholarly paper on "The Ethical Basis of Education" was read by Mr. C. Williamson, B.A., before the Philosophical Society, which met last night at the residence of Dr. Hickson, 272 Mountain St.

Education was defined as the process by means of which the individual acquires experiences that will function in rendering more efficient his future action.

the home, or the church.

The speaker enumerated several of the most important motives to education which affect society. One of these is the 'bread and butter aim' which makes social advancement through the development of the individual. In contrast with this is the 'knowledge aim' which tends to a mere abstract reverence for education. There is also culture aim with a view to high social standing. Still another is the harmonious aim which seeks to develop equally all one's abilities.

The speaker showed that the social criterion is explicit in practically all ethical theories. He emphasized the advantage of recognizing the equivalence of the terms 'socially efficient' and 'moral'. That form of education may be considered best which makes the individual most efficient socially.

THE ETHICAL BASIS OF EDUCATION WAS SUBJECT OF PAPER

Philosophical Society Hear
Goob Paper

A very scholarly paper on "The Ethical Basis of Education" was read by Mr. C. Williamson, B.A., before the Philosophical Society, which met last night at the residence of Dr. Hickson, 272 Mountain St.

Education was defined as the process by means of which the individual acquires experiences that will function in rendering more efficient his future action.

Education in the main proceeds along two general lines—(a) informal education or those modifying influences to which all individuals are subjected in varying degrees, and (b) formal education, which is the control consciously assumed, either by the individual himself or by some educative agency, such as the school,

the home, or the church.

The speaker enumerated several of the most important motives to education which affect society. One of these is the 'bread and butter' aim which makes social advancement through the development of the individual. In contrast with this is the 'knowledge aim' which tends to a mere abstract reverence for education. There is also culture aim with a view to high social standing. Still another is the harmonious aim which seeks to develop equally all one's abilities.

The speaker showed that the social criterion is explicit in practically all ethical theories. He emphasized the advantage of recognizing the equivalence of the terms 'socially efficient' and 'moral'. That form of education may be considered best which makes the individual most efficient socially.

A full attendance of the members of the Orchestra is desired for next Thursday evening. The function at which the orchestra is to provide music, will be the Senior Play on February 19th. — J. A. Smith.

The sheet of ice on the east campus which was produced by the mild weather is being utilized by youthful hockey artists who have cleared away enough snow for a fair-sized rink. Some of these youngsters, judging by their form, ought to be heard from later.

Several stars of both the R. M. C. hockey and football teams, are hoping to come to McGill next fall. Their presence here ought to help greatly in Athletic circles as many of the best men on our football and hockey teams are graduating this spring.

CONSERVATIVE CLUB WILL NOT ASSIST TO WARP JUDGEMENT

Above Statement Made at Organization Meeting

At a mass meeting of the Conservatives last night in Strathcona Hall, the Conservative Club was organized and the officers for the coming year elected.

The Club is to be affiliated with the Montreal Liberal-Conservative Club, and two representatives from McGill will be represented in their councils.

Mr. Walsh was in the chair, and informed those present of the nature of the organization.

"The object of the Club," he said, "will be to help the student body keep in constant touch with politics, and give scope for the development of political ideas, at the same time helping the individual to think out important political problems."

After due consideration I do not think that the Club would in any way "warp the judgment of the students," as recently stated in the Daily.

He also said that the Club would be a recruiting ground for future politicians.

After a short discussion the officers were elected as follows:

Hon. President—H. B. Ames, M.P.
Hon. Vice-Pres.—G. H. Baker, M.P. and G. P. Johnson.
Hon. Secretaries: A. P. Mathieu, and Guy Drummond.

President—D. MacGuire.

Vice-Presidents—F. A. Parkins, H. C. Beatty; H. B. Church, A. Stalker.
General Treasurer—H. P. McKeen.
General Secretaries—J. S. Hall and H. D. Johnson.

Assistant Secretary-treasurers—P. Hutchinson, W. S. Sutherland and J. Moore.

Recording Sec'y.—W. McConnell.
Delegates—Messrs Walsh and MacNaughton.

POINTS OF INTEREST IN CONNECTION WITH RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

Candidates from New Found-land Must be Younger Than Those From Elsewhere

Owing to the approach of the time for choosing a Rhodes scholar from McGill, there has been a great deal of interest shown on this subject. The following are a few items from the will of Cecil Rhodes, which are not generally known. No student who is a citizen of the United States attending College in Canada can hope to obtain a Rhodes Scholarship. For some strange reason a candidate from Newfoundland must be younger than one from any of the other countries. "Candidate must be unmarried, must be between the ages of nineteen and twenty-five, in Newfoundland colonies 18 and 21, and they must be, in the colonies, British subjects." In every province of Canada a scholar is elected each year, in the United States two are chosen from each State every third year and in Germany five scholarships yearly are provided. It is interesting at the present time when the relationship of England and Ger-

ARTS CHAMPIONSHIP AT STAKE IN GAME ON CAMPUS TO-DAY

Sophs and Juniors will Fight it Out for Honours

The final game for the hockey championship of the faculty of Arts is billed for this afternoon on the campus rink at three o'clock, the contenders being teams representing the years Fourteen and Fifteen. Both sevens have already won a game, the Sophs, defeating the Freshies, while the '14s took the seniors into camp and as the supremacy of the faculty is at stake the contest should be productive of some strenuous hockey. The '14 outfit present an aggregation of stars and look to be the best bet for the fracas. The teams will line up as follows:

'14. Abinovitch .....goal .....Clarke
Skinner .....point .....Abbott
Graham .....cover .....Mahaffy
McDiarmid .....rover .....Gibb
Scott .....centre .....Rivard
McKenzie .....L. W. Williamson
Stewart .....R. W. Fraser

JUNIOR HOCKEYISTS TO HOLD PRACTICES ON CAMPUS SURFACE

Keen Competition for Positions

The third hockey team has begun to hold work-outs and should make a good showing this season. In former seasons McGill was represented by four hockey teams, but this year the number has been reduced to three, and competition is, therefore, keener. Hours have been secured on the campus rink and a number of men have decided to turn out and try for places on the team. The Juniors are apparently due for a big boom this year. Any men who have been turning out and who have not secured tickets for the practices may secure them from D. C. Skinner, of Arts '14. The following are the practice hours: Monday, 7-8; and Thursday, 8-9.

many is of such prominence in the public mind to see what Cecil Rhodes thought on that subject. He states in his will, "The object being that an understanding between the three great powers will render war impossible and educational relations make the strongest ties."

He also defines as follows the principles on which he wished his scholars to be selected. "My desire being that the students who shall be elected to the scholarships shall not be merely bookworms, I direct that in the election of a student to a scholarship regard shall be had to (1) his literary and scholastic attainments; (2) his fondness for and success in manly outdoor sports, such as cricket, football and the like; (3) his qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty; sympathy for, and protection of the weak, kindness, unselfishness and fellowship; and (4), his exhibition during school days of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates; for those latter attributes will be likely in after life to guide him to esteem the performance of public duties as his highest aim."

Notes and Comments

Queens played under a heavy handicap in their game with Varsity the other night. The Presbyterians were in poor condition and missed the presence of Blakeslee on the defence.

There seems to be considerable doubt in professional hockey circles as to the success of the seven man hockey game. One of the chief criticisms has been that the extra man got into the way of his team mates. In the old days, such a criticism would have been entirely uncalled for. The professional hockey teams play a game from which combination play has been practically done away with. The excitement has to be provided by individual efforts. Given a little bit of practice there is no reason why the seven-man game should not prove entirely successful.

Barwis, who plays point on the R.M.C. hockey team, is a splendid all round athlete. He was one of the best scorers at the sports held at the Royal Military College last fall. He played on the R.M.C. Tennis team, and made a very good showing at the Intercollegiate Tennis Meet in Toronto. Barwis played on the half-back division of the Cadets Football team and did most of the kicking. Last year he was the star performer on the R.M.C. hockey team, and is playing a splendid game again this winter.

Tonight the Wrestling Team will strive to uphold the honor of McGill at Pennsylvania State University. The odds appear to be very much in favor of their opponents, but McGill men are usually successful in facing and overcoming odds. It is a long and tiresome trip and will probably fatigue the team somewhat. They will however, have all day to recuperate and should go on the mat in pretty fair condition.

The appointment of a selection committee by the Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Club, is an excellent idea. It is to be hoped that they will meet with every success in their endeavors. We are not as strict in our training along athletic lines as we might be here. During the recent bouts at the College Meet, some of the men appeared to be in anything but the pink of condition. It is essential that our representatives should be in the very best of shape if they are to succeed at the Intercollegiate championship.

R. M. C.'s defence will be very strong this season, being just the last year. Blackstock who plays goal, is a very steady player and has played on the team for three seasons now. Barwis is playing point and once again promises to be a sensation. Patterson, who is captain of the team, plays cover point and he rounds out on one of the strongest defences in Intercollegiate hockey circles.

Kendall, the tow-haired defence man who scintillates at point for the Intermediates, is a brother of Karl Kendall, the famous centre-ice player of the Vancouver seven in the B. C. professional league.

Ryley is putting up a strong game in the practices and may be used against Queens next week. He is a graduate of the Ottawa City league, where he played left wing for one of the teams.

MCGILL UNDERGRAD
ORCHESTRA HELD A SPLENDID PRACTICE

Members are Enthusiastic and Working Hard

The McGill Undergraduate Orchestra held a most successful practice last evening. The members feel much encouraged by the success of last Sunday's sacred concert. All are enthusiastic, and the future concerts of the Orchestra bid fair to surpass all previous efforts.

Mr. Smith, the able director, has decided upon the following selections for the Senior Play on February 19—
King Catherin — — — Sousa.
Prince of Pilsen. — — — Humoreske
Spring Maid. — — — D'vorak.
March — — — Selected.
The Orchestra has been requested to play again before the Literary Society at Macdonald College. The trip to St. Annes will probably take place about the first week in March.

There will be a meeting of the executive of the Western Club at five p.m. Friday (Feb. 7), in Strathcona Hall.—H. H. McKenzie, Secretary.

THE NEGATIVE WON INTER-THEOLOGICAL DEBATE LAST NIGHT

Programme at Last Night's Meeting a Good One

The annual debate of the Montreal Theological Colleges took place last evening, in the Congregational College. A very large audience gathered to hear the debaters discuss the resolution: "That Profit-Sharing and Co-operative Methods generally afford the Most Promising Solution of the Labour Problem."

In defending Profit-Sharing, Mr. Samson of the Congregational College, cited numerous illustrations of the feasibility of the scheme.

In reply, Mr. P. S. C. Powles, B.A., of the Diocesan College, dwelt on the unfairness involved in the profit-sharing idea. Workmen were allowed a share of what they did, not earn. The second speaker for the affirmative, Mr. W. P. Booth, B.A., of the Wesleyan College, confined his remarks to Co-operative Methods. His illustrations were derived, in the main, from the successful working out of the idea in the Old Country. Mr. McLean, Presbyterian College, maintained that labor problems had been solved in the past, but not by co-operation. He dealt more directly with the problem in Canada, referring especially, to the way legislation had dealt with the "Yellow Peril" in the West. The leader of the affirmative then proceeded to refute a few of the arguments advanced by the negative.

While the judges were arriving at a decision, Miss Emma Koch rendered a piano solo, and Miss Hazel Bond recited a very humorous sketch, entitled "The Parson At The Hockey Match."

The decision of the judges was in favour of the negative.

The meeting was brought to a conclusion with a few congratulatory remarks from the chairman, Dr. Warriner.

And she's generally the worst dancer.

Girls are like philosophy—the more you study them the less you know.

But we all keep on trying to know them just the same.

And that's the reason why so many of the fellows are grouchy a good part of the time.—The Targum.

Sayings of Sorehead

GIRLS.

Girls are like the sand—you make an impression on them for a short time, but a new love comes in with the rising tide and memories of you are washed away in the overflow.

A girl with big blue eyes can get away with almost anything.

Some girls smile because they want to and others have studied the effect in their mirrors.

There are some things pretty bad in this world, but none of them holds a candle to having a crush on a girl who has a crush on some one else.

You can generally manage to say less in a letter to a girl than in any other type of literature.

And a girl can tell you lots in a letter without really saying anything.

Some girls are sentimental and others really like you when they say so.

Some girls believe everything you say and other girls are sensible. But the sensible girl isn't always the most popular one.
